AO 245B (Rev. 11/16) Sheet 4A - Probation

DEFENDANT: AMINA MOHAMUD ESSE CASE NUMBER: 14-CR-369 (1) (MJD)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

- A. The defendant shall be prohibited from participating in fund-raiding activities unless pre-approved by the probation officer and the court.
- B. The defendant shall submit her person, residence, office, vehicle, or an area under the defendant's control to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or supervised designee, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a supervision violation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or third parties that the premises and areas under the defendant's control may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- C. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, cell phone or have access to any on-line service without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office. The defendant's cooperation shall include but not be limited to allowing installation of a computer, cell phone and Internet monitoring program and/or identifying computer systems and cell phones, Internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access. Monitoring may include random examinations of computer systems or cell phones along with Internet, electronic, and media storage devices under the defendant's control. The computer system, cell phone or devices may be removed for a more thorough examination, if necessary. The defendant is not required to contribute to the costs of monitoring services.
- D. If not employed at a regular lawful occupation, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer, the defendant may be required to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed. The defendant may also participate in training, counseling, daily job search, or other employment-related activities, as directed by the probation officer.
- E. The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including credit reports, credit card bills, bank statements, and telephone bills.
- F. The defendant shall not possess, view, access or otherwise use material that reflects extremist or terroristic views or as deemed to be inappropriate by the U.S. Probation Officer.
- G. The defendant shall participate in a mental health counseling program as approved by the probation officer. This program may include psychological/psychiatric counseling or treatment, family counseling and mentor support.
- H. The defendant must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the direction of the probation officer as a means to ensure compliance with the requirements of supervision.
- I. The defendant shall comply with all Immigration rules and regulations and, if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. Upon any reentry to the United States during the period of court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report to the nearest U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office within 72 hours.
